

Sample Biographies

Jane M. Homeschool is the daughter of Joe and June Homeschool of Dallas. She currently serves as president of our local chapter of the National Home School Honor Society and is an intern with Concerned Women for America in Springfield. Jane has won many awards for her piano and her singing, performing in several choirs. She plans to pursue a double degree in vocal performance and speech pathology at the Cleveland Institute of Music and Case Western Reserve University in Ohio. Jane would like to thank her brother, John, for making their school years so much fun. She also is thankful for her family and friends for their guidance, support and prayers.

Linda Lou Who was born and raised in New York. She was involved in her youth group and home school support group for many years. Starting at age nine, Linda Lou volunteered hundreds of hours at the Genesee Country Village and Museum, a living history museum in New York. In May of her junior year, she and her family moved to Illinois where she has plugged into many activities including choir, youth group and National Home School Honor Society. In the fall she will be attending Olivet Nazarene University majoring in fashion merchandising with her long-term-goal to work in costume design.

Raul Jose Who is seventeen and has been home schooled his whole life. Through his high school career, he has enjoyed biking and archery. Last year he moved from New York to Illinois. In New York, Raul went on several mission trips with his youth group. During his senior year, Raul has been active in his new youth group and Theta Zeta-the National Home School Honor Society chapter. He took calculus at Calvary Baptist Academy where he also played soccer and baseball. Raul will attend Olivet Nazarene University to study Engineering, where he also plans to join the Army ROTC.